THE HUNT DELIGHTFUL

'Attendance at the Deep Run Club Was Larger Than in a Long Time.

THIRTY RIDERS TOOK PART

Many Enjoyed the Club's Hospitality at the Club-House When the Hunt Ended.

Thirty horsemen, gayly attired and riding spirited steeds, dashed through the fields and woods yesterday. It was the largest meet in years of the Deep Run Hunt Club, and the attendance bore eloquent testimony to the renewed interest being taken in the most glorious of autumn and winter sports.

Both horses and riders were in exuber-ant spirits, due to the keen, bracing air, and seldom has a meet been more thoroughly enjoyed,

Starting at Bloomingdale the trail led to Warwick, and thence by the Brook Road back to the club house, where equally enticing pleasures were in waiting.

Mr. Harry C. Beatile, M. F. H., was in charge of the hunt, and Mr. Allen Potts acted as whip. Among the distinguished visitors was Mr. Willetts, of the Meadow Brook Hunt Club, whose family owns Hetherbloom, the world's champlon number.

THE CONSOLIDATION. THE CONSOLIDATION.

A topic of conversation yesterday among the riders was the proposed consolidation of the three clubs, and the erection thereafter of n country club to be the property of the organization.

The idea met with favor on all sides, and there is every reason to believe that some decisive step will be taken in the not distant future.

CITY HALL MEETINGS FOR THE WEEK

Order Now for Christmas.

The ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA will make an ideal Christmas present. That goes without saying. Yet you may wonder why we are mentioning the fact now. It is by way of warning. By the first of December we will not promise to deliver books for Christmas except in very urgent cases. It takes about thirty days to fill an order for BRITANNICA, on account of the large number of orders constantly coming in. Last year we were sold so far ahead that it was impossible to make immediate deliveries, and we were forced to decline accepting Christmas orders. Many patrons offered to pay us the full price in advance for sets, but we could not accept their is a marvel of completeness. Comprising 31 volumes of 25,000 large pages, it opens up every vein of knowledge known to mankind. No less than three millions of dollars were spent in its preparation. The world's greatest scholars have labored over it for one hundred years. That is why the BRITAN-NICA is recognized as the king of encyclopaedias all over

Pay for it AFTER Christmas!

BRITANNICA takes little of your Christmas money—nothing beyond the first payment. Afterward is may be paid for a little at a time—when you will hardly feel the outlay. And if you order now, you get it at less than half price.

Price Will Soon Advance!

On account of the increased cost of materials and labor, the price of this Encyclopaedia must be advanced at an early date. We have, however, arranged that this increase in price shall not go into effect until the present printing is exhausted.

But prompt action is needed to obtain a set on the present advantageous terms. Cut out the INQUIRY COUPON before you lay aside this paper, and send it in AT ONCE!

SHOOTING IN BRUNSWICK

Charles Howerton Uses His Pistol on George E. Barrow.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BARROW'S SYORE, VA., Nov. 14.-A BARROW'S SYORE, VA., Nov. 14—A difficulty occurred at Ordsburg, in this county, on Thursday evening between Mr. Charlie Howerton and Mr. George E. Borrow. It appears from the best information obtainable that on Thursday a customer of Mr. Barrow's brought some chickens to his store for sale, and he not caring to buy them, told his customer that if she would take them down to Mr. Howerton's store doubtless he would buy them, and perhaps give her a dram besides. The customer (a colored woman) took the chickens down to Mr. Howerton what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow, and unfortunately told Mr. Howerton what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Barrow had sald, and perhaps added something to what Mr. Borrow did say, which offended Mr. Howerton, an dhe immediately got his horse and rode down to Mr. Barrw's and called him from a corn pile, where Mr. Borrow and several of his neighbors were shucking corn, and asked Mr. Barrw what he had against him, and Mr. Borrow and several of his neighbors were shuck-ing corn, and asked Mr. Barrw what he had against him, and Mr. Borrow promptly repiled that he had nothing whatever, to which reply Mr. Howerton gave, the lie, and used very offensive language, whereupon Mr. Barrow turned around and pickeu up a cart pin and struck Mr. Howerton on the side of the head.

Card From Editor Cox.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Bir,—On reading my letter with reference to the primary, as published in The Times-Dispatch of the 8th, I fear some portion of same is liable to misconstruction. I wrote hurriedly on the morning before election. I did not allude to the "primary" of this year, or of any special "primary," but of the system of "the primary," but of the system of "the primary," in general, for selection of candidates.

It certainly was far from my intention to cast any reflection upon the conduct of the primary which selected the candidate for the House this year. In justice to Mr. Adams, who was elected as our delegate, I request you to publish this letter.

Most sincerely,

LEONARD COX.

Evans and Mr. V. G. Weaver were the ushers.

Fromptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the church, beautifully decorated with evergreens and chrysanthemums, to Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Emma Dew Segar. The ushers came first, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Sallye Segar, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of white Paris mousseline, and carried white chrysanthemums. Then came the bride-cleet, leaning on the arm of her brother. The groom, with his best man, came in from a side entrance and met the bride at the altar, where they were made man and wife by the officiating minister, Rev. Thomas Lewis, of Essex. The bridal party left the church in the reverse order to the triumphant strains of Menhelssohn.

Dr. and Mrs. Cottingham left on the steamer for Baltimore en route to their new home at Remington, carrying with them congratulations and best wishes from a large circle of friends.

WHAT YOU NEED FOR CONSTIPATION.

When troubled with constipation, what you need is a remedy that is sure to produce the desired effect. A remedy that is mild and gentle in its action. A remedy that leaves the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. A remedy that is easy and pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets meet all these requirements. Give them a trial, and you will never wish to take another dose of pills. Use them as directed and they will cure chronic constipation. Price 25 cents. Every box is warranted.
